

THE PATH OF ADVANCED AWARENESS TO LASTING HAPPINESS

Online Interactive Guidebook

The Guidebook that leads you through the online workshop consists of four sessions. In each session you will learn how to incorporate positive energy more and more into your everyday life as you discover a simple yet highly effective new way to improve lasting happiness within yourself and in your relationships. This is “The Path of Advanced Awareness to Lasting Happiness.”

Session 1: Introduction

Happiness cannot be defined in words. It can only be felt. As we learn how to feel lasting happiness more and more in our daily life, we are creating the “Habit of Happiness.” This is what the path of Advanced Awareness is all about.

Session 2: Creating Lasting Happiness in Yourself

Your personality is defined as how you prefer to use mental energy in your conscious brain to think with, make decisions, act on your decisions, and interact with others. Your personality plays a major role in creating lasting happiness in your life.

Session 3: Higher Consciousness

You will discover how your unique personality prefers to spend mental energy in your everyday life. Turning that mental energy into the positive energy of Higher Consciousness is your path of Advanced Awareness to lasting happiness.

Session 4: Creating Lasting Happiness in Your Relationships

People we are attracted to are typically people with whom we think similarly (are compatible with). These are the people we are likely to choose in creating our relationships. Developing positive energy compatibility within your chosen relationships can greatly enhance lasting happiness in your life.
